Sound and Music
Sound and Music

Who are we?

Sound and Music is the national charity for new music.

We support anyone who wants to make music and sound to shape the modern world. We enable individuals to challenge expectations and discover their potential, and act as a friendly guide for those who want to listen deeper. Our work sustains more careers, progresses creativity and achieves greater equity across music in the UK.

We are guided by our Fair Access Principles, a code of best practice which ensures our work is open and inclusive for all.

Sound and Music is supported by Arts Council England and proud to be a National Youth Music Organisation.

The creative programme for Sound and Music makes a unique and distinctive contribution to the arts in the UK. We are a National Portfolio Organisation of Arts Council England. NPO funding is confirmed until March 2026.

Sound and Music is an equal opportunities employer. We are committed to making recruitment and employment at Sound and Music inclusive and accessible. We particularly welcome applications from backgrounds that experience racism, and/or who are disabled or neurodiverse, to whom we will offer an interview if you meet the essential criteria for the role (see page 12).

Sound and Music
Head of External Engagement

Job Description

Title of Post: Head of External Engagement
Contract & hours: Permanent contract, 0.8 to 1.0
(4 to 5 days a week, and open to flexible working arrangements)
Location: London (but postholder can work remotely from anywhere in the UK)
Salary: £55,000-£60,000, depending on experience
Reporting to: Chief Executive
Deadline: 23:59, 14 April 2024
Interviews: 29 April – 2 May 2024
Created: March 2024

General Information

The Head of External Engagement is a key leadership post within the organisation. The role encompasses responsibility for the development and delivery of the organisation's external activity, including profile, brand identity and stakeholder engagement (including the public), fundraising, and driving income generation in new areas, notably commercial partnerships.

It also forms part of Sound and Music’s senior management team, who under the leadership of the Chief Executive are responsible for overseeing the organisation's programme of activity, strategic development, external profile and a positive and productive organisational culture.

An experienced fundraiser and communicator, you will lead the external engagement team and support the delivery of its strategic and operational plans. The broad remit of the role means the successful candidate will be a strong and confident communicator who builds networks easily and prioritises exceptional stakeholder management and relationship development.

Sound and Music operates a hybrid working model with a mix of in person and remote working, so we welcome applications from anywhere in the UK. Our office is in London and the minimum requirement will be to attend one day per week.

The post holder will support Sound and Music's commitment to equality, diversity, and inclusion, contributing to a culture of respect and collaboration in the organisation's internal and external activities.

Candidate Profile

Essential

- A demonstrable commitment to Sound and Music’s vision, mission and values
- A track record of generating income across different channels, meeting targets, with the ability and experience to manage and develop long-term and sustained fundraising relationships (for example, with major donors and trusts and foundations)
- Leadership (a strong combination of these are essential):
  - A track record of leadership, including leading or working at a senior level in an organisation during a period of growth and change
  - Excellent team leadership skills, with high emotional intelligence and generosity, a genuine enthusiasm for encouraging the input and ideas of others
  - Strong budgeting and financial planning skills, and the ability to work collaboratively on this
- An entrepreneurial mindset: success in leveraging income, developing new income streams and value through commercial acumen and effective strategic partnership building
- A track record in championing and addressing under-representation in culture and a deep-rooted commitment to equality, diversity and inclusion

Desirable

- Experience of increasing brand profile, developing brand awareness, and expanding audiences for a specialist product or service
- Understanding of the current political, economic, social and technological climate, including the context for culture and public funding and an active engagement with technological developments in creativity
- Excellent communication and interpersonal skills: able to engage confidently with different audiences and areas of the sector both publicly and on a 1:1 basis
- Excellent understanding of digital communications and infrastructure and how it can build reach and engagement, including using data to drive decision making

If you feel you have just some of the required skills and experience but meet the person specification, we would still encourage you to apply; we are very open to continuing the training and development of individuals who are self motivated to acquire new skills and knowledge relevant to the role.
Activate people’s creative listening and composing skills
